Your request for opinion has been received and carefully considered by this office. We quote from your request as follows:

"The County Treasurer, after tendering her resignation to the Honorable Commissioners' Court, to accept a position with the County Tax Assessor-Collector's office, and after having worked five days in the Tax Assessor-Collector's office, who court still not having accepted the resignation of the treasurer, the County Judge bought and demanded that the treasurer go back to the office and work for three days issuing checks to pay salaries and county bills. The County Judge stating to her that the Tax Assessor-she worked in the County Treasurer's office, just as though she had rendered service in said department.
